

“Israel has a right to defend herself.”

— President George W. Bush,
July 13, 2006

Kidnapped soldiers.

Murdered civilians.

Sustained terror.

All unprovoked.

Hezbollah — funded, armed and supported by Syria and Iran — has declared war on Israel. The Hamas regime continues its relentless attacks.

Now more than ever, the democratic State of Israel needs the world's unqualified support.

Thank you, Mr. President, for your courageous stand.
We call on Europe and the world community to follow your lead.
