

11 ACTIONS FOR 11 LIVES

The one-year commemoration of the attack on three synagogues in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania - Congregation Dor Hadash, New Light Congregation and Tree of Life * Or L'Simcha Congregation - is a time to remember and mourn, but also a time for action. To honor those lost, we urge you to join the fight against hate. Whether you have a day, a few hours, or just a few minutes to dedicate, you can make a meaningful difference in your own community and beyond.

Join us to take action in their honor:

1

MEMORIALIZE the 11 lives lost by signing up to take part in "Pause with Pittsburgh" — a collective virtual moment of unity and remembrance – at 5pm EST on Sunday, October 27.

2

VOLUNTEER with your favorite organization.

3

SUPPORT Pittsburgh and remember those lost by attending a memorial event in your community.

4

SEND a message of solidarity by visiting the Pittsburgh October 27 website.

5

TALK to young people about the consequences of hate. (Here are some educational resources to help answer common questions or choose a book from our Books Matter collection to share stories of bias, diversity and standing up to hate.)
