

Education Webinars and Podcasts

ADL Education webinars and podcasts from leaders in anti-bias and Holocaust education assist educators and parents in building inclusive and respectful learning environments and provide timely and important information on curricula resources and children's books related to bias, bullying, diversity and social justice.

Webinars

Podcasts

Introducing Students to Difficult Topics: Primary Sources and Picture Books

Set a foundation for discussing complex and sensitive themes with students in the classroom using primary resources and picture books. More >

Bullying on Campus in the Electronic Age

Are bullying and cyberbullying issues for college students? Learn to address the issues of bullying, bias and power as part of larger educational initiatives around diversity and inclusion on campus. More >

The December Dilemma: Navigating Religious Holidays in the Public Schools

Explore the legal issues of religious freedom and learn how you can help to create a school environment that respects different points of view, religious beliefs and practices. More >

Empowering Students to Combat Bullying

Help your students understand that there are powerful ways to be an ally that don't involve confrontation. Learn how bystanders can become allies. More >

Facing Bias and Bullying: Educational Responses

Increase your understanding about the relationship between bullying and bias and learn strategies for responding effectively to bias-motivated bullying. More >

Fulfilling the Promise of Brown: School Discipline, Education Equity and the Achievement Gap

Is your school disciplinary system equitable? Review the legal aspects of Federal guidance on school discipline and learn how to implement educational best practices for addressing bias related issues in schools. More

>

Making the Holocaust Relevant through Visual History Testimony

Examine how the medium of visual history testimony plays an important role in Holocaust education through an exploration of video clips from Echoes & Reflections and IWitness. More >

Using an Anti-Bias Lens to Examine Early Childhood Children's Books in Your Program

Unfortunately, the impressions imparted by some books are not always positive and free from bias. Learn what teachers can do to take advantage of their early windows of opportunity to prevent the development of prejudice. Note this webinar is 1 ½ hours. More >

Using Current Events to Teach About Bias, Diversity and Social Justice

Increase your ability to use current events and controversial issues as a way to teach about bias, diversity and social justice while still addressing learning standards. More >