Collections of Educational Resources by Theme

Below is a list of curated collection pages of educational resources organized by themes and topics. Each collection includes lesson plans, teaching strategies, children's literature, blogs, family tools and other resources.

Collections, Organized by Topics and Issues

TOOLS AND STRATEGIES

Resources to Address and Challenge Antisemitism

The topic of antisemitism is complex and deeply historical. Use these resources in the classroom and at home to help young people understand and challenge antisemitism.

Challenging Anti-Asian Bias and Acting as an Ally

Amid the increase in anti-Asian rhetoric, bullying in schools, racist incidents, scapegoating and hate crimes, use this collection of resources on anti-Asian bias and how to act as an ally.

Collection of lesson plans and children’s literature that use the reading and writing of poetry to teach about identity, diversity, bias and social justice.

The Power of Poetry to Teach about Identity, Bias and Social Justice

Collection of lesson plans and children’s literature that use the reading and writing of poetry to teach about identity, diversity, bias and social justice.
Parent, Family and Caregiver Resources

Strategies, tips and resources to help parents, family members and caregivers impart to the children in their lives values and principles about diversity, address bias and bullying and challenge injustices in the world.

Parent, Family and Caregiver Resources

Strategies, tips and resources to help parents, family members and caregivers impart to the children in their lives values and principles about diversity, address bias and bullying and challenge injustices in the world.

TOOLS AND STRATEGIES

Teaching about Racism, Violence, Inequity and the Criminal Justice System

Anti-bias resources and strategies to help you discuss with your youth incidents of police officers involved in the deaths of African-American and Latino males and a biased justice system.
Elections often bring about differences of opinion and strong feelings. Use this collection of resources in schools and at home to teach young people about civics, how government works, the electoral process and more.

Tools and Strategies

Teaching about Elections

Elections often bring about differences of opinion and strong feelings. Use this collection of resources in schools and at home to teach young people about civics, how government works, the electoral process and more.

Sports and Social Justice

A collection of resources for teachers and families that focus on athletes, sports and social justice.
A collection of education resources for educators, parents and families on immigration, immigrants and anti-immigrant bias.

Education Resources on Immigration, Immigrants and Anti-Immigrant Bias

A collection of education resources for educators, parents and families on immigration, immigrants and anti-immigrant bias.

Education Resources on Refugees, Muslim People and Anti-Muslim Bigotry
Resources for educators and others to address the topics of Muslim people, anti-Muslim bigotry and refugees with young people.

TOOLS AND STRATEGIES

After Charlottesville: Teaching about Racism, Antisemitism and White Supremacy

Relevant lesson plans, literature and anti-bias resources and strategies to help you discuss the topics of racism, antisemitism and white supremacy with young people.
Finding the Balance: Countering Extremism and Combating Stereotypes

Young people are exposed to news stories every day through media and overheard conversations among the adults in their lives. Use these resources to teach about extremism.

BACKGROUNDERS

Civil Rights Movement

The Civil Rights Movement of the 1950’s and 1960’s came about out of the need and desire for equality and freedom for African Americans and other people of color. Nearly one...
During No Name-Calling Week sponsored by GLSEN (Gay, Lesbian and Straight Education Network), use our educational resources to help create inclusive learning environments and counter bias and bullying in the classrooms, schools and world.

Tools and Strategies

No Name-Calling Week

During No Name-Calling Week sponsored by GLSEN (Gay, Lesbian and Straight Education Network), use our educational resources to help create inclusive learning environments and counter bias and bullying in the classrooms, schools and world.

Collections, Organized by Themed Months

Tools and Strategies

Black History Month

This year’s theme is "African Americans and the Vote." Use our lesson plans, teaching tools and other resources to bring the themes of Black History Month into your classroom in February and beyond.
Women's History Month is a time to celebrate ordinary and extraordinary women, explore women’s achievements and struggles throughout history.

Asian American Pacific Islander (AAPI) Heritage Month is a celebration of the culture, traditions and history of Asian American and Pacific Islander people in the United States. Use these resources to teach and commemorate this heritage in school, communities and at home.
A collection of resources for educators and families to help teach about and celebrate Jewish American heritage in schools, communities and at home.

TOOLS AND STRATEGIES

Jewish American Heritage Month Resources

A collection of resources for educators and families to help teach about and celebrate Jewish American heritage in schools, communities and at home.

TOOLS AND STRATEGIES

LGBTQ Pride Month and Education Resources
Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Queer Pride Month (LGBTQ Pride Month) is celebrated each year in the month of June to honor the 1969 Stonewall riots in New York City.

National Hispanic Heritage Month, which began in 1968, is a time for people to celebrate the achievements, contributions, culture and history of Hispanic and Latino-Americans.

National Hispanic Heritage Month: Ideas for Teachers

National Hispanic Heritage Month, which began in 1968, is a time for people to celebrate the achievements, contributions, culture and history of Hispanic and Latino-Americans.
Here are some resources to help students be motivated and empowered to act as allies and help contribute to creating a positive “ally culture” at their schools.

Native American Heritage Month
This is a collection of education resources for Native American Heritage Month
TIVE AMERICAN RITAGE MONTH