Collections of Educational Resources by Theme

Below is a list of curated collection pages of educational resources organized by themes and topics. Each collection includes lesson plans, teaching strategies, children's literature, blogs, family tools and other resources.

Collections, Organized by Topics and Issues

TOOLS AND STRATEGIES

Resources to Address and Challenge Antisemitism

The topic of antisemitism is complex and deeply historical. Use these resources in the classroom and at home to help young people understand and challenge antisemitism.

TOOLS AND STRATEGIES

Teaching about Elections

Elections often bring about differences of opinion and strong feelings. Use this collection of resources in schools and at home to teach young people about civics, how government works, the electoral process and more.

TOOLS AND STRATEGIES

Education Resources on Immigration, Immigrants and Anti-Immigrant Bias

A collection of education resources for educators, parents and families on immigration, immigrants and anti-immigrant bias.
Education Resources on Refugees, Muslim People and Anti-Muslim Bigotry

Resources for educators and others to address the topics of Muslim people, anti-Muslim bigotry and refugees with young people.

TOOLS AND STRATEGIES

Teaching about Racism, Violence, Inequity and the Criminal Justice System

Anti-bias resources and strategies to help you discuss with your youth incidents of police officers involved in the deaths of African-American and Latino males and a biased justice system.
Relevant lesson plans, literature and anti-bias resources and strategies to help you discuss the topics of racism, antisemitism and white supremacy with young people.

After Charlottesville: Teaching about Racism, Antisemitism and White Supremacy

Young people are exposed to news stories every day through media and overheard conversations among the adults in their lives. Use these resources to teach about extremism.

Finding the Balance: Countering Extremism and Combating Stereotypes

Young people are exposed to news stories every day through media and overheard conversations among the adults in their lives. Use these resources to teach about extremism.
The Civil Rights Movement of the 1950's and 1960's came about out of the need and desire for equality and freedom for African Americans and other people of color. Nearly one...
This year’s theme is “African Americans and the Vote.” Use our lesson plans, teaching tools and other resources to bring the themes of Black History Month into your classroom in February and beyond.

Women’s History Month is a time to celebrate ordinary and extraordinary women, explore women’s achievements and struggles throughout history.
Asian Pacific American Heritage Month is a celebration of the culture, traditions and history of Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders in the United States. Use these resources to teach and celebrate this heritage in school, communities and at home.

Asian Pacific American Heritage Month Resources

Asian Pacific American Heritage Month is a celebration of the culture, traditions and history of Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders in the United States. Use these resources to teach and celebrate this heritage in school, communities and at home.

Jewish American Heritage Month Resources

Here is a collection of resources for educators and families to help teach about and celebrate Jewish American heritage in schools, communities and at home.
Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Queer Pride Month (LGBTQ Pride Month) is celebrated each year in the month of June to honor the 1969 Stonewall riots in New York City.

National Hispanic Heritage Month, which began in 1968, is a time for people to celebrate the achievements, contributions, culture and history of Hispanic and Latino-Americans.
Here are some resources to help students be motivated and empowered to act as allies and help contribute to creating a positive “ally culture” at their schools.

National Bullying Prevention Month

Here are some resources to help students be motivated and empowered to act as allies and help contribute to creating a positive “ally culture” at their schools.

Native American Heritage Month

This is a collection of education resources for Native American Heritage Month.