Collections of Educational Resources by Theme

Below is a list of curated collection pages of educational resources organized by themes and topics. Each collection includes lesson plans, teaching strategies, children's literature, blogs, family tools and other resources.

Collections, Organized by Topics and Issues

TOOLS AND STRATEGIES

Teaching about Elections

Elections often bring about differences of opinion and strong feelings. Use this collection of resources in schools and at home to teach young people about civics, how government works, the electoral process and more.

Bigstock
Education Resources on Immigration, Immigrants and Anti-Immigrant Bias

A collection of education resources for educators, parents and families on immigration, immigrants and anti-immigrant bias.

TOOLS AND STRATEGIES

Education Resources on Refugees, Muslim People and Anti-Muslim Bigotry

Resources for educators and others to address the topics of Muslim people, anti-Muslim bigotry and refugees with young people.
Anti-bias resources and strategies to help you discuss with your youth incidents of police officers involved in the deaths of African-American and Latino males and a biased justice system.

TOOLS AND STRATEGIES

Teaching about Racism, Violence, Inequity and the Criminal Justice System

Anti-bias resources and strategies to help you discuss with your youth incidents of police officers involved in the deaths of African-American and Latino males and a biased justice system.

Tools and Strategies

After Charlottesville: Teaching about Racism, Anti-Semitism and White Supremacy

Relevant lesson plans, literature and anti-bias resources and strategies to help you discuss the topics of racism, anti-Semitism and white supremacy with young people.
Young people are exposed to news stories every day through media and overheard conversations among the adults in their lives. Use these resources to teach about extremism.

TOOLS AND STRATEGIES

Finding the Balance: Countering Extremism and Combating Stereotypes

Young people are exposed to news stories every day through media and overheard conversations among the adults in their lives. Use these resources to teach about extremism.

BACKGROUNDERS

Civil Rights Movement
The Civil Rights Movement of the 1950's and 1960's came about out of the need and desire for equality and freedom for African Americans and other people of color. Nearly one...

Rowland Scherman for USIA, Photographer. Courtesy of U.S. National Archives and Records Administration.

TOOLS AND STRATEGIES

After the Deadly Shooting at a Pittsburgh Synagogue: Resources for Educators

After the shooting incident at the Tree of Life Synagogue, here are resources for educators and parents to support the discussion of this incident in the classroom and at home.
Since 1976, every U.S. president has officially designated the month of February as Black History Month. Here are some lesson plans and resources to help you teach about black history in your classroom.

Tools and Strategies

Black History Month

Since 1976, every U.S. president has officially designated the month of February as Black History Month. Here are some lesson plans and resources to help you teach about black history in your classroom.

Women's History Month Resources
Women's History Month is a time to celebrate ordinary and extraordinary women, explore women’s achievements and struggles throughout history.

TOOLS AND STRATEGIES

Asian Pacific American Heritage Month Resources

Asian Pacific American Heritage Month is a celebration of the culture, traditions and history of Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders in the United States. Use these resources to teach and celebrate this heritage in school, communities and at home.
Here is a collection of resources for educators and families to help teach about and celebrate Jewish American heritage in schools, communities and at home.

Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Queer Pride Month (LGBTQ Pride Month) is celebrated each year in the month of June to honor the 1969 Stonewall riots in New York City.

National Hispanic Heritage Month, which began in 1968, is a time for people to celebrate the achievements, contributions, culture and history of Hispanic and Latino-Americans.
Here are some resources to help students be motivated and empowered to act as allies and help contribute to creating a positive “ally culture” at their schools.

National Bullying Prevention Month

This is a collection of education resources for Native American Heritage Month.
NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH