How to Effectively Respond to Bias Incidents in Your Schools

Wednesday, March 3, 2021 | 3:00 PM ET

Presenters: Danika Manso-Brown, Associate Education Director, and Caterina Rodriguez, Director of PreK-12 Education Programs, ADL

This webinar will help participants understand how to use ADL's toolkit, "Responding to Bias Incidents in Middle and High Schools: Resources and Best Practices for School Administrators & Educators," to address incidents effectively at their schools. By educating students about the impact of harmful language and behaviors, educators and administrators can actively challenge bias, cultivate... inclusivity and model how students can do the same. Q&A will follow the presentation.
