Creating More Inclusive School Communities: The December Dilemma & Inclusive Calendar Practices

November 16, 2021

Speakers: ADL’s David Barkey, Senior & Southeastern Area Counsel, National Religious Freedom Counsel and Michelle Magner, Education Director

As the December holidays approach, we know that many school administrators and teachers face the challenge of planning holiday programs and activities that demonstrate a respect for students of all faiths and religious beliefs. This one hour webinar explores the legal issues of religious freedom and how to help create a school environment that respects different points of view, cultures and religious beliefs.

Webinar recording includes closed captioning.
