A Survey of Attitudes Toward Jews in Mexico
Methodology
The Anti-Defamation League commissioned First International Resources to update attitudes and opinions toward Jews in Mexico. Fieldwork and data collection for this international public opinion project were conducted and coordinated by Anzalone Liszt Grove Research. All interviews were conducted between January 18 – February 1, 2017.

Expected margin of sampling error at the 95% confidence level is ±4.1%.

The margin of error is higher for sub-groups within Mexico. Interviews were conducted via landline telephones, mobile phones and face-to-face discussions.

All respondents were selected at random. Telephone respondents were selected using random-digit dial sampling;
Methodology – Telephone Interviewing

Interviews were collected using a combination of landline and mobile phone dialing, in proportion to Mexico’s coverage rate for each telephone type. The data was weighted to be reflective of the national population on a number of demographic measures, including age, gender, religion, urban/rural location, ethnicity, and language spoken.

Sources for population data was the United States Census Bureau and the UN Department of Social and Economic Affairs - Population Division.
As in 2014 and 2015, we created Index Scores by asking whether the following negative stereotypes are “probably true” or “probably false.” Respondents who said at least 6 out of 11 statements are “probably true” are considered to harbor anti-Semitic attitudes.

ANTI-SEMITIC STEREOTYPES

1) Jews are more loyal to Israel than to [this country/the countries they live in].
2) Jews have too much power in the business world.
3) Jews have too much power in international financial markets.
4) Jews don’t care about what happens to anyone but their own kind.
5) Jews have too much control over global affairs.
6) People hate Jews because of the way Jews behave.
7) Jews think they are better than other people.
8) Jews have too much control over the United States government.
9) Jews have too much control over the global media.
10) Jews still talk too much about what happened to them in the Holocaust.
11) Jews are responsible for most of the world’s wars.
Major Findings: Mexico

Anti-Semitism is rising in Mexico, manifested through economic anti-Semitism in claims of excess Jewish power in finance.

% Harboring Anti-Semitic Attitudes

- 2014: 24%
- 2017: 35%

“Jews have too much power in the business world”

- 2014: 40%
- 2017: 56%
In contrast to many other Global 100 countries, in Mexico, greater interaction with Jews correlates with harboring more anti-Semitic attitudes.
