Introduction

On April 4, 2009, Richard Poplawski, a resident of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, shot and killed three Pittsburgh Police Bureau officers responding to a domestic disturbance call involving Poplawski and his mother. Poplawski was a white supremacist and anti-government extremist who subscribed to “New World Order” conspiracy theories about a future police state in which martial law would be declared, guns confiscated, and dissenting citizens sent to FEMA-run concentration camps.

Immediately following the shooting, the Anti-Defamation League’s Center on Extremism instigated an extensive investigation into Poplawski and his background, examining nearly 2,000 Internet postings he had made in recent years on various on-line message boards. From these postings, ADL uncovered his increasing extremism and confrontationalism in the six months prior to the April 2009 ambush.

ADL provided this information to investigators and, later, prosecutors involved in the case. In the spring of 2011, ADL summarized many of Poplawski’s most relevant postings in a 41-page report provided to prosecutors. Though submitted as evidence, the information contained in the report was in the end not used in the trial; the judge ruled that it might be prejudicial to the jury.

In the light of Poplawski’s conviction and subsequent death sentence in June 2011, ADL has decided to make public the contents of that report, to provide the citizens of Pittsburgh a better understanding of the background behind the tragic events of April 4, 2009 by illustrating the mindset of Richard Poplawski.

White Supremacy

10/23/2007	Stormfront	I have long since felt the same way. I attribute it, in part, to my solid upbringing...my mother made it clear that it would be frowned upon (to say the least, she actually told me she would bust me with a frying pan) to bring home a non-white girlfriend long before I had started thinking about bringing home any girls period, lol. Negroes especially have disgusting facial features. The fat nosed flaring nostril look is putrid. Nappy hair makes me want to gag. I dont want to even imagine setting eyes upon the genital region of a negroe female. I think another thing that is off-putting is the black attitude they tend to have, with the head bobbing and the lip smacking and the ebonic bubonic slurring. garbage. Latina chicks are even worse off in the attitude department, talk about a cocky you-owe-me-something group. and you talk about black girls looking like men- almost every asian on this planet looks the same to me As disgusting as it is, it really is no wonder a negroe would kill for a beautiful blonde haired gal. If only everybody would stick to their own race we would be a bit better off. "Dont mix your blood with dirt, son"
10/23/2007	Stormfront	yeah, I did forget that. And I dont think what they say about races smelling different is that far off the mark when I think about it. I can definitely smell arabs and indians from several feet away. I dont notice it as much for asians.
10/24/2007	Stormfront	My comment wasn't to justify black "males" wanting White women, more or less just so say that It makes sense. Who wouldn't want an attractive White gal. Doesn't mean that its right, or that I approve of or condone it. Kind of like, I can see why a thief would want your necklace. Its a fine necklace indeed. The best kind. Thats not justifying the theft. Thats a loose example, of course. (Not meant to put a price on the purity of our race) Just to show the difference between understanding a crime and justifying it. And I believe I said all Asians look the same to me, if thats not a comment on the looks of an Asian female, I dont know what is. As for Latinas, its much harder to pull out downright

		disgusting traits, in my mind, since Negroes make it so easy. That doesn't mean I find them attractive or would date one, but I don't find them as vile as blacks, personally.
10/27/2007	Stormfront	Although, impregnating her certainly isn't going to do anything to sway her mind toward WN. The original poster said something along the lines of his girlfriend thinking mixed race babies are attractive. That is DANGEROUS territory. It implies that she is supportive of interracial relationships and possibly would be willing to enter into one herself. A short personal story- I had this attractive blonde-haired lover who became pregnant because of us generally being careless. The child was aborted against my wishes 😞 much pain, and so on (save the abortion debate for another thread) Fast forward to the end of our relationship and the shattering of young innocent pure love. much pain, and so on Fast forward to her next boyfriend: [picture of two women with black man -ADL] Yeah, that's right. There are several points I can draw from my personal experience that is relevant to this discussion and that post I quoted specifically I believe that my strong WN views pushed her toward something that would tear me up inside, I think this is because I was overbearing when it came time to discuss race. 's this, s that' So when it came to that point where it was, 'what can I do to really get at him?' well, you see what happened For a long time, I tore myself up inside for being so careless as to bring about a situation where what would have been a beautiful white child was destroyed in the womb. Now with things as they are, and although it's not enough to completely remove the issue from my conscience, take a look at my beautiful white child's potential stepfather. and do 50 pushups. So my advice, as others have said, is not to be too overbearing in your approach to WN. Secondly, and although I laughed at the poster's facetious suggestion to knock her up ASAP, it's a bad idea, obviously. You need to do an efficient, complete job of racial awakening and do it in a timely manner but not too forcefully. Sound like a tough job? Welcome to the White Nationalist movement. Such an assignment is a task with

		which we all are charged. My real suggestion, if I may, sir, would be to dump this girl squarely on her head because she has shown you that you have a future race traitor on your hands. Although I see the merit of trying to prevent her from straying in that direction, know that your heart may depend on it. Good luck.
11/12/2007	Stormfront	True story. Not just sharing it to make myself look tough, has parallels with this incident. Some time ago, my mother was carjacked. We'll actually her purse was stolen at a party, from what I understand, and the culprits matched the keys to the car outside of the house. A few days later I was driving through the neighborhood and I saw my mothers car coming the opposite direction. She drove a late model mazda mx-3, of which there are very few on the road, it was unmistakable. I promptly whipped a U-turn and followed the car. Two groids in it. I didnt have my cell phone on me at the time, I cant remember why. I wasnt sure what was going to happen as I had no way to contact police and was not armed with anything more than a tire iron. I followed the car at a distance for a good two miles down a straight boulevard, hoping police would notice me either me or the vehicle driving irradically and running red lights...or something...anything Eventually I caught the bastards at a red light, I was one car behind them. I threw the lincoln into park and got out with the full size tire iron. I guess they saw me coming because by the time I made it up to try to take a swipe at the drivers head, he had begun to pull out. So I smashed the back window. They smashed into the car in front of them, then into the one beside them, and the car in front of them. It was wild, they really mashed their way through traffic and up over a median to escape a tire iron wielding skinhead. 🚗 Anyhow, cops came, I was almost positive I was going to jail for smashing my moms car with a tire iron and causing a bunch of accidents and blocking traffic etc. The first cop on the scene asked me to describe the suspects. "Two male S"  White firefighters, white and black motorists that had been hit by the stolen car on scene whirled their heads in my direction.  She threatened to arrest me on the basis of that alone, so I

		changed my tone a bit. But I told her, thats what they were. Two s stole my moms car, and I caught up with them by chance and smashed their day apart. Too bad I didnt get a wack at a negroe mellon, too bad I didnt have a gun with me. Eh, either way...the car was found abandoned around the corner, and I was able to get in touch with my mother and have her come pick it up. They never caught the groids responsible, or the person that stole the purse and presumably "sold" the car to s that were in it by the time I caught up with them. The car was shot...front end obliterated from ramming through traffic, transmission shot from the joyriding, back hatch window broken out. What a mess. But I felt the vigilante super skinhead man, and wasnt charged for it, much like the guy in this tale. I have since obtained my license to carry firearms in my homestate of PA. It makes me wonder though, I dont understand how this guy wasnt charged. He went out of his way to chase a suspect. And used deadly force to protect property which I was pretty sure isnt legal. There was no longer a threat to his or his mothers life by the time the perpetrator pulled away. I dont get it 😞 I mean I am 100% in support of him doing what he did, especially after my personal story, but I would think for sure youd go to jail for something like that. But good for him. edited by Braced for Fate; 11-12-2007 at 03:23 PM. 3/13/2009	Stormfront	Decoding the collapse First, let's review a few basic tenets that are commonly espoused here on StormFront: 1. The federal government, mainstream media, and banking system in these United States are strongly under the influence of- if not completely controlled by- Zionist interest. 2. An economic collapse of the financial system is inevitable, bringing with it some degree of civil unrest if not outright balkanization of the continental US, civil/revolutionary/racial war, SHTF/TEOTWAKI scenario etc. 2A. This collapse is likely engineered by the elite Jewish powers that be in order to make for a power and asset grab. Now, it seems to me that there is a need to reconcile these concepts into a seamless, sensible theory about our near future. I don't think there is any question that item 1 is the truth. ZOG is. One can read the list of significant persons in government and in major corporations and see who is pulling the strings. One can observe the policies and final products and should walk away with little doubt there is Zionist occupation and- after some further research &amp; critical thinking- will discover their insidious intentions. I also don't think there is too much debate about the eventuality of a collapse of economic and social order in this country. All signs seem to point to a once great nation in the midst its last gasp, suffocating under the weight fiscal

		irresponsibility. Poisoned by design by the moral decadence that is a direct byproduct of item 1. The purpose of this thread is to tap into the collective knowledgebase of the many bright White Nationalist thinkers that peruse this forum. Please help me try to determine the most likely scenario so that we may organize ourselves around it and plan for its contingencies. If we somehow get thoroughly blind-sided at this late stage it is possible that we may never recover. At the heart of my question is this: If 1 and 2 are accepted as accurate, what sense does it make for 2A to also be true? In other words: Why, seeing as how the Jews seem to have the nation right where they want it, would they now turn around and destroy it? Common perception seems to be that if there is an abrupt collapse of social order then racial awareness among the white population will rise dramatically. The Jewish media that dictates "pop culture" could no longer elevate the negro, and reality would reveal its nature. Race-mixing would come to a halt overnight. Consumerism and materialism would cease as the people scrounge for the necessities. It would make much more sense to keep the population content and therefore apathetic and lethargic than to stir the pot that would at the very least: create a disruption in the agenda, and at the very most: drive the elite from their places of power, which have undoubtedly been sought out and schemed after for decades. Fortunately, as of right now, the American populace has yet to be fully racially homogenized, has yet to become even close to disarmed, and still would stand a fighting chance to throw off their chains and ensure a worthwhile existence for their children. It would make more sense, from the perspective of the Zionists, to maintain status quo and continue the drumbeat of miscenegration, continue to sound the horn of liberalism, and continue the march toward a dystrophic society in which they could never be challenged. Furthermore, given the situation in the Middle East, it doesn't make sense for Israeli interest to strangle its chief benefactor. If the US "goes under" and no longer has the funds or personnel willing to fight wars on behalf of the Jews then the state of Israel would be history within months as the Arabs would seize the opportunity they've been waiting for. Or could the Jews rely upon their nuclear arsenal to stave off assured destruction?

		Don't get me wrong. If a total collapse is what it takes to wake our brethren and guarantee future generations of white children walk this continent, if that is what it takes to restore our freedoms and recapture our land: let it begin this very second and not a moment later. Let comfort and convenience be damned, and I will welcome the hardship and embrace the pain secure in the knowledge that our people will rise above and overcome our darkest days. I just am beginning to think that the elders of Zion are too smart to start the war. Why would they give us the push we need? Unless greed and audacity have clouded their minds in the final hour, I just cannot see an engineered abrupt collapse scenario. We, the people, are not ripe to be picked from the tree of liberty. Not just yet. If disturbed at this juncture, the seeds of racial purity will fall again on this land and take root. Our enemies know it. They've got to. So where does that leave us? I will continue to instill racial awareness among our brothers and sisters. I will continue to promote preparedness but I am not sure what to warn of anymore. Perhaps the elite, be they evil Zionists or greedy traitorous goyim, have truly lost control and the inherent error of their endeavors is creating an unstoppable tidal wave of global backlash sure to breathe much needed life into our movement? But perhaps we will endure some type of slow, drawn out national demise that will allow the masses to remain asleep while the power at the top is consolidated? Perhaps there is an elephant in the room and I don't see it. Do you?

11/24/2007	PAFOA	Re: open carry Forgive me, I know I could dig hard for the answer to this, as its frequently trodden territory around here but perhaps somebody can just chime in and save me the time with a simple answer or two if they would be so kind  1) are you required to produce ID for a police officer in PA 2) if confronted by an LEO would you be required to follow his order to conceal the weapon/surrender the weapon/leave the area (my guess would be no. being that you need only follow lawful orders??) 3) would you be required to speak at all to a police officer that stopped you, i.e. could I just sit and stare at his mug and see what happens? or perhaps repeat the second ammendment or something similiar with sharp redundancy? 4) would it be a good bet to just try to leave the area? what happens if Im detained? Basically I'm getting ready to strap on the holster and start with the OC. Thing is, I dont look the part of an offduty LEO, being freshly 21 and babyfaced to boot. Im just tryin to find a general consensus on the best way to act if hassled which for some reason I anticipate happening. Seems like the jury can be somewhat out on the best way of handling a situation. I dont care to bend at all from harassment from the police If I'm doing nothing more than exercising a right. If that means pissing a cop or two off, then so be it, if they are so ignorant as to try to trample my rights or inconvenience me in any way for no reason. I mean Im not talking about DISRESPECTING any cops, just not bending for them in fear as so many people do. I know some gun owners may even see that as a problem, giving other guys OC'ing a bad name or whathaveyou by 'stirring the pot'? I assure you Im not LOOKING for trouble! I read the thread about the guy at sonic, and it seems like he handled it well, but it just lends itself to the question: why

		would you even produce the LTCF (which I do have) when youre not required for an OC on foot, y'know? i dont know, I just dont want to be apprehensive about doing something legal and well within my rights just because Im unsure how to handle a problem if it were to arise. Please pardon my FAQs, I assure you ill be sniffing around the forum when I get spare time
1/3/2008	PAFOA	As much as I am glad to see the OP [original poster –ADL] not escalate the situation... What you have here is a citizen being illegally detained, his property illegally seized (even if only temporarily). If you had tried to walk away from the officers my guess is they would have stopped you. You werent free to go. OP, +1 for keeping it cool. (woohoo, I got rep power now! back up!) Still- Another example of an undue hassle. There may have been real crime going on down the street + This guy had to freeze his ass of in the middle of a shopping trip for no good reason. Garbage. Damn it!
1/8/2008	PAFOA	I wouldnt be so quick to praise the new sheriff. Of course, he did show the effort to come out and talk with us. But if you think about it, hes a freshly elected man. This was a huge opportunity for him to get his teeth whitened then come out and smile at the cameras. It was PR. It reminded me of any other politician. Even look how he played the other side of the fence in channel 27 interview. He catered to us. He catered to them. He catered to the cameras. I watched his mannerisms from the moment I layed eyes on him, before I even knew who he was. But I knew he was someone. He radiated an inflated self-importance. Indignation. I saw him look out of the side of his face at Greg in the courtroom, who while everybody else was chatting before the judge appeared, sat solemnly and looked only straight ahead. It was a look of disdain- just one, and just briefly. I saw it. It was the opposite of Mr. Rotzs humble body language. Then come outside and hug the gunmen. Then turn around and

		give the anti's something to walk home with. Yeah, Anthony, everyone is happy. Good job. In a way, he did the only thing he could do. He took full advantage of the situation to build an image for himself, as well as distance himself from the former sheriff thereby saving some degree of face. Anybody remember the little jokes he told. 'Well I only found out last week I'd be walking into this on my second day of duty hyuk hyuk' Dont remind us. We know. I should apologize for being presumptuous. One can never know what another man truly has in his mind, or in his heart. Some of you had a chance to talk with the man. I only watched and studied. I can only offer my observations and my opinions. He may have been genuine and charming if I had actually spoken with him. But from what I saw, and what I heard. I was far from charmed. There were alot of impressive personalities at work this afternoon. I had much to take in. I was content to be among the group. However, on a day containing the display of several such enthralling demeanors. His was not as such.
1/26/2008	PAFOA	I dont think the goal would be to penalize any sheriff. The idea would be to plant the seed in their mind that they cant just revoke or deny and not be called to task on it. That, I think, isnt such a pipe dream. If Sheriff Goofyballs is driving to work/reading the paper/opening his mail/talking with his friend and it comes to light that there are a group of people looking out for folks who have been screwed, it makes him less likely to duplicate the maneuver. I think this is true because what causes the little god complex these guys have is the feeling that they can do what they want and nobody is going to say anything to them about it, matter of fact...nobody will even KNOW. No sheriff will be afraid to serve up the sour grapes when the public doesnt realize its happening, or isnt willing to fight it. I think of it like this. We all sat and recognized the benefits that emerged from 1/8/08. The "practical precedent". We would be best served by trying to maximize these benefits. Otherwise, all that happened was one guy got one license back.

		I want all the guys that deserve them to have their licenses without fear of cracking a fart and the county sheriff smelling it. Ya dig?
1/26/2008	PAFOA	Any chance of some preemptive action on our parts?  Something like those OpenCarry training documents but in letter format and addressed to every sheriff's office statewide. Something that encloses the news snippets from Chambersburg and reads to the effect of "Dont be a wollyung. Dont think its ok to revoke citizens' LTCF on a whim(just on the off chance you were thinking about maybe doing it) because you WILL be held accountable " in so many more professional words. I really thought the states' sheriffs would have taken notice automatically after this months victory on E Lincoln. Apparently not.  What could it hurt? Pro-gun sheriffs get the memo and smile. Antigun or on-the-fence sheriffs get the message. Possible decrease in arbitrary jagoffism. just a thought
12/2/2008	Letsgopens	Are you serious?  Its easy to post pictures of terrorists holding AK's in an attempt to demonize guns but I should hope most people would see right through that tactic. What happens when the GOV is the only entity with any real firepower.  And they feel like trampling you.  With what instruments will you fight the tyranny? Lest ye forget.  Think it cant happen here?  Stay tuned.
2/1/2009	Stormfront	Re: Preparedness: Post what you're hearing on the street  here in Pittsburgh we are anticipating thousands of revelers following the superbowl, of course... lots of local media coverage lately seemed to revolve around/emphasize heavy police presence on the streets... it may be an interesting opportunity for the cops to flex their crowd control muscles/have a 'dry run'/make a statement for any future unrest...

		similarly, it provides a chance for the citizenry to survey police procedure in an unrestful environment I will be out safely observing the situation in my area...will follow up with any interesting points
2/11/2009	Stormfront	Oops. forgot to follow up on this... partly because nothing notable really occurred in my neighborhood minutes after the game ended the boulevard flooded with bar-goers... screaming and dancing, small fireworks... minutes later a few squad cars arrived on the scene and drove up and down the street, seemingly sizing up the situation. Shortly thereafter they picked a single block to close down using parked squad cars. About a half dozen helmeted cops with 4 foot batons(!) and a few k9 units arrived...some held ground and others patrolled within their limited closed-off area. I observed a formation of 4 police motorcycles with side-pods and 2 full sized vans parked in the road along with countless cruisers. I would consider it a very heavy police presence for an area that I would estimate only had maybe 150-250 (predominantly white) people that were acting fairly civil. I observed no arrests nor any serious police or civilian misconduct. I did break silence one time to a small group of 3-4 white cops off to the side of the main gathering that seemed to be having some sort of little conference..I couldnt help myself and figured it couldnt hurt. 🤔 Me(from the sidewalk): "HEY! WHEN THE * REALLY HITS THE FAN, I HOPE YOU GUYS ARE ON OUR SIDE....!!" I definitely got their attention because the one with his back to me turned around. They heard me loud and clear but kept stone faces. I can only hope that at least SOME our men and women in uniform have their heart in the right place. I hope one of those guys thought twice about what I really meant. Within an hour most revelers had dispersed, I watched the police motorcade leave the area from a friends 2nd story apartment. It was surreal watching all the police vehicles travel in a caravan like that. overall I would say the police reaction in my area seemed fairly structured and organized....maybe it was just my mind but it came and went just like a dress rehearsal. afterall, this was a HAPPY crowd of WHITES.... Here is a short clip with police on horseback. BTW, the local

		news said 500 officers were on duty that night. I remember reading that the arrest total doubled from when the steelers won in 06. Same city, same event, two years later, double the arrests? I think the most ominous tidbit from a rather boring night overall (cops and negrobball arent among my favorite things in the world) was that the police had commandeered port authority BUSES for use in riot control! I saw a clip on the news that night of three busses in use by police but have since been unable to find any photos or video of them on the internet. It was just creepy seeing busses put into action by authorities, as if they were ready to transport busloads of steeler fans to 645 FEMA drive if necessary. I really wonder what happened in Pittsburgh's many black neighborhoods that night. I dont trust the MSM to report the happenings accurately and I sure wasnt about to investigate for myself.

From the satellite view there appears to be more sections that have been covered with the concrete lids and backfilled to look as if nothing is there. ABC rock is put in place under the burial vaults for good drainage and solid bedding. 8/21/2007	Skoolie	How to? Solar Charge            Im hoping you can shine some light on the electric system for my upcoming project. What I want to do is rig up the electrical system in my short bus. Ultimately, Im going to want to be able to power a small air conditioning unit. Also, I want to power one or two of: laptop, television, a small radio, and very low wattage lighting. Additionally, but not simultaneously, at some point I may need to power an electric burner or cookware of some type. Realizing a small air conditioning unit may draw 10 amps max over 8 hours max (80Ah) and that I do not want to discharge my deep cycle battery beyond 50% at any time if at all possible, that puts me in the 160Ah range. Add another 100Ah to that for other applications and Im leaning towards the Concorde Sun Xtender PVX-2580L AGM Sealed Battery rated at 255Ah, 12Volt. Even if overkill, better too many Ah than too few Ah, especially if dependant on solar power, no? Im fairly sure Ive sized my battery appropriately, so Id like to build the system around that. I want three available methods of charging this battery. A) I want to mount a Sanyo 200 Watt HIT Solar Panel to the roof. Ill have room for more than one, seeing as how the dimensions are roughly 4.3 feet X 2.9 feet, but maybe not the budget for more. B) A Honda EU2000i or EU1000i lightweight generator will come along for the trip C) Id like to be able to charge the battery off of 120v AC whenever I can find some juice around. Now I plan to spend the majority of my time in Florida, Texas, and the southwestern areas of the US, hence the desire for solar charge. Like I said, I may have room for more panels, but not the budget...so Question 1) How likely is it that I will need a second panel at all?

		I need a charge controller between the PV unit(s) and the battery, that much I know. Where Im somewhat confused leads to Q2) How do I determine what I need the charge controller to be rated at? The two AC methods would probably be primarily for backup during cloudy spells or in the event of a high depth of discharge etc. So I need a multistage battery charger between the shore power/ generator and the battery bank. Similarly Q3) How do I determine what the charger needs to be rated at? Also, Im very open to additional methods of charging the battery, but very unsure as to how anything else might work. Ive heard I can rig a special alternator to generate charge, but not sure of the costs of this method, and really would like to keep this electric system seperate from the vehicles own primary electrical system. I think the solar power along with said backups should be a good set-up. Great, now that the battery is juiced up, its time to run the show. I plan on having every appliance using 120v AC power. Of all the appliances I think I might run, the measuring stick for the inverter should be the sum of the wattages of the appliances running simultaneously, or the wattage of the highest drawing appliance thatd Id run by itself. Most likely the first scenario has me running a 600 watt AC unit, and maybe a 100 watt laptop plus a few lightbulbs. Less than 1000 watts total. The second scenario has me running either a 1000 watt microwave or a 1200 watt cooking device by itself so lets go with a Samlex 1500 Watt 12 Volt Sine Wave Inverter. EDIT: Oh- and if anybody can speak a bit about where ill need my fuses and meters, and what type, thatd be great! So theres my system, as I see it. If you see any gross miscalculations or oversights, please let me know. Ive researched this topic fairly well, but am by no means an expert in the field so its likely theres alot that I dont understand and before I go about purchasing thousands of dollars in equipment, I need to know its all going to work smoothly. Thanks!

10/27/2007	Stormfront	(in response to someone buying a marine battery and power inverter) That sounds SORELY insufficient. You can have the biggest ugliest inverter in the world and without a battery bank rated at the proper aH (amp hours) capacity, its no good. Your whole electrical setup is only as good as your battery bank. Now you say a (single) deep cycle marine (ugh) battery. What you need to do is figure out exactly what capacity you need, worst case scenario, and work your way down from there. Example: I need to run this 1000w appliance for 10 hours.  Now, Watts/Volts=Amps  1000W/120 Volts = 8.3 Amps  8.3 Amps over 10 hours is 83 amp Hours  BUT you may be running your appliance out of the inverter on standard 120v AC....keep in mind your battery is DC, either 6, 12, or 24 volts.  So youre really drawing 83 Amps out of that 12v DC battery  83 amps over ten hours is 830 aH.  and you never really want to bring your deep cycle below 50% DOD (depth of discharge)  So what youd really need would be a battery bank with 1600aH  which, guess what folks, would literally weigh over a metric ton And thats not touching on how youre charging this bank. If you have a single solar panel, my guess is that is probably no more than 200W. So this 200W panel would be putting out 16 amps at 12v under ideal conditions. Now we know conditions are never ideal, but lets say the sun shined upon the white race and were putting 16 amps into our hypothetical battery bank its going to take 100 hours to fully charge. 50 hours because we didnt discharge it fully. the sun shines for less than 12 hours a day. good sunshine for less than 8, great sunshine for less than 4. do the math, its going to take you all damn week for that solar panel to juice up enough to run your appliance for another 10 hour cycle. thats if clouds didnt exist. And I assume you have a charge controller. and are taking into account how much extra that 5000w superinverter is sucking up just being on. I do not mean to condescend you in the slightest way, but
------------	------------	---

		you really really need to do some research on this topic So, what are the specs on your panel, and your battery? What are your daily needs, worst case?

We obviously need to have them shipped to a FFL. The problem so far is that the local shops want to charge us 35-40 dollars per each to transfer them. This is stopping the group buy in its tracks as nobody wants to pay 40 dollars each on a rifle thats worth less than $100. We are hoping we can find a FFL that can offer us a fair price on the transfer of the entire lot (probably 6-10 rifles) or a lower 'per each' price. Thanks

3/13/2009	Stormfront	Decoding the collapse First, let's review a few basic tenets that are commonly espoused here on StormFront: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The federal government, mainstream media, and banking system in these United States are strongly under the influence of- if not completely controlled by- Zionist interest.</li> <li>2. An economic collapse of the financial system is inevitable, bringing with it some degree of civil unrest if not outright balkanization of the continental US, civil/revolutionary/racial war, SHTF/TEOTWAKI scenario etc.</li> <li>2A. This collapse is likely engineered by the elite Jewish powers that be in order to make for a power and asset grab.</li> </ol>

		Now, it seems to me that there is a need to reconcile these concepts into a seamless, sensible theory about our near future. I don't think there is any question that item 1 is the truth. ZOG is. One can read the list of significant persons in government and in major corporations and see who is pulling the strings. One can observe the policies and final products and should walk away with little doubt there is Zionist occupation and- after some further research &amp; critical thinking- will discover their insidious intentions. I also don't think there is too much debate about the eventuality of a collapse of economic and social order in this country. All signs seem to point to a once great nation in the midst its last gasp, suffocating under the weight fiscal irresponsibility. Poisoned by design by the moral decadence that is a direct byproduct of item 1. The purpose of this thread is to tap into the collective knowledgebase of the many bright White Nationalist thinkers that peruse this forum. Please help me try to determine the most likely scenario so that we may organize ourselves around it and plan for its contingencies. If we somehow get thoroughly blind-sided at this late stage it is possible that we may never recover. At the heart of my question is this: If 1 and 2 are accepted as accurate, what sense does it make for 2A to also be true? In other words: Why, seeing as how the Jews seem to have the nation right where they want it, would they now turn around and destroy it? Common perception seems to be that if there is an abrupt collapse of social order then racial awareness among the white population will rise dramatically. The Jewish media that dictates "pop culture" could no longer elevate the negro, and reality would reveal its nature. Race-mixing would come to a halt overnight. Consumerism and materialism would cease as the people scrounge for the necessities. It would make much more sense to keep the population content and therefore apathetic and lethargic than to stir the pot that would at the very least: create a disruption in the agenda, and at the very most: drive the elite from their places of power, which have undoubtedly been sought out and schemed after for decades. Fortunately, as of right now, the American populace has yet to be fully racially homogenized, has yet to become even
--	--	--

		close to disarmed, and still would stand a fighting chance to throw off their chains and ensure a worthwhile existence for their children. It would make more sense, from the perspective of the Zionists, to maintain status quo and continue the drumbeat of miscenegration, continue to sound the horn of liberalism, and continue the march toward a dystrophic society in which they could never be challenged. Furthermore, given the situation in the Middle East, it doesn't make sense for Israeli interest to strangle its chief benefactor. If the US "goes under" and no longer has the funds or personnel willing to fight wars on behalf of the Jews then the state of Israel would be history within months as the Arabs would seize the opportunity they've been waiting for. Or could the Jews rely upon their nuclear arsenal to stave off assured destruction? Don't get me wrong. If a total collapse is what it takes to wake our brethren and guarantee future generations of white children walk this continent, if that is what it takes to restore our freedoms and recapture our land: let it begin this very second and not a moment later. Let comfort and convenience be damned, and I will welcome the hardship and embrace the pain secure in the knowledge that our people will rise above and overcome our darkest days. I just am beginning to think that the elders of Zion are too smart to start the war. Why would they give us the push we need? Unless greed and audacity have clouded their minds in the final hour, I just cannot see an engineered abrupt collapse scenario. We, the people, are not ripe to be picked from the tree of liberty. Not just yet. If disturbed at this juncture, the seeds of racial purity will fall again on this land and take root. Our enemies know it. They've got to. So where does that leave us? I will continue to instill racial awareness among our brothers and sisters. I will continue to promote preparedness but I am not sure what to warn of anymore. Perhaps the elite, be they evil Zionists or greedy traitorous goyim, have truly lost control and the inherent error of their endeavors is creating an unstoppable tidal wave of global backlash sure to breathe much needed life into our movement? But perhaps we will endure some type of slow, drawn out national demise that will allow the masses to remain asleep while the power at the top is consolidated? Perhaps there is an elephant in the room and I don't see it. Do you?

AND theres at least potential for economic distress and subsequent civil unrest. who can debate this world isnt already in alot of turmoil. as it has been for THOUSANDS OF YEARS NOW now is not the time to 'dis' the constitution &amp; the bill of rights. to infringe on the common man's means of defending himself. you may be right. I may be crazy. but it just may be a lunatic youre lookin for

2/11/2009	PAFOA	I was wondering if anybody could help me out here... A group of friends and I are considering purchasing a lot of military surplus rifles from an online retailer. We obviously need to have them shipped to a FFL. The problem so far is that the local shops want to charge us 35-40 dollars per each to transfer them. This is stopping the group buy in its tracks as nobody wants to pay 40 dollars each on a rifle thats worth less than $100. We are hoping we can find a FFL that can offer us a fair price on the transfer of the entire lot (probably 6-10 rifles) or a lower 'per each' price. Thanks

"Mainstream" Politics and Obama

Date	Source	Comment
2/8/2008	Speakout.com	Obama and the 2nd Solves an interesting problem for me, if Obama does not support both the right and the spirit of the 2nd I'll not trust him to support the rest. The Amendments are all or nothing, they are not selective choices by the party in office. Voting Democratic has just been removed as a choice, need to re register now I guess so I can vote in the primaries.
9/27/2008	Letsgopens	I think the neocons will murder Obama and frame white supremacists.
10/16/2008	Letsgopens	Re: Obama-Biden vs McCain-Palin by iEUX on Thu Oct 16, 2008 6:47 am Im worried because I'm not optimistic about McCain's chances here. And I really want a President that we can look to as a true hero. How long since we've had that? Since the bulk of Americans could look to their elected leader and truly see what you'd call a great man. John McCain couldve at least been that much. He has that factor covered. Regardless of any issue on the table. I have a feeling I will be sickeningly disappointed this winter- Ill be sick when I step out of the door. I can feel it already. Ill want to grab the first stranger I see and shake them. How did you let this happen?!? Not now!!! Not with so many evil people bent on our destruction!!! Its too soon for this experiment in American politics. I feel like this whole Obama phenomenon is just enhanced by a certain novelty factor. If you want a young, suave, gentleman in office. Thats fine. If you want a black man. Ok. Whatever. But not now. Not just yet. There's a tremendous amount of * on the line right now. We need the closest thing to a sure thing. Can't we bring in the steely eyed former-POW that was raised in a military family and clearly has dedicated his entire life in service to our nation.....Just until we get a firmer grip on this whole national security thing? Or until we can figure out the future of our military footprint in the world?

	The final debate's topic schedule was absolutely horrible. They really really need to change the topic of the final debate to be inclusive of ALL major issues. Its the last chance we get to hear directly from the guys you expect us to trust with our votes, and we get only part of the story?! I couldve smashed my television when I realized there wasnt gonna be a wrap-up on foreign policy and terrorism related matters. Were on the cusp of losing our way of life as a nation. You cant treat economics and terror as two totally unrelated topics. Were hobbling in financial crisis and looking like a better target than ever, folks. Its akin to 'being on the ropes'.... God forbid if we have 911-2 on this next pres' watch. Then what? instead of the hardened war hero we have this guy over here who has sex appeal and speaks well and seemed like a great idea at the time. gol-ly. effin incredible. Were gonna need a tough head of state and a capable commander in chief. Barack Obama does not fit the bill. Does not. Obama is soff. Obama is green. The world wants Obama in there. Our enemies want Obama. If thats not enough to convince you its a bad idea I don't know what is Ive been a believer of supporting the President no matter who wins. The whole unity concept. but I will be so utterly disappointed with the state of our nation if the wrong choice is made when the choice is clear. If it were a campaign where you look at the two candidates and you basically have slimeball politician A, and slimeball politician B, both who are basically round-aboutly evenly qualified and experienced. I would support the winner whether he/she be black brown or white as my President. But here you have a man with undeniable accomplishments and contributions over the course of his long lifetime. An inspiration by all means. Respected in the international arena. Then you have another man who has these questionable associations. who arguably is under qualified. whose record definitely just isnt as impressive..... ooohhh...but he speaks so well....and he has charisma. and America is sick of Bush. and some people apparently have some notion that only a Democrat can be the answer to the financial crisis. so lets bring him in...give him a whirl...whats

		the worst that can happen? The biggest mistake the voters will ever make and Bin Laden has his fingers crossed. Some of you seem to think we cannot be destroyed. or think that the American way of life is absolute, or guaranteed. So many people take so much for granted and it is evident in this whole election atmosphere. change. you want change. you people make me so sick. if you let this smooth talking cad hornswaggle this nation my heart will be broken. Because I do love this country. So much. You would have stolen from me a potential hero and instead installed the hippest flavor of day. and if it ends up ruining everything I will sob heartily. just cry. right into the star spangled banner but no longer be able to take comfort in any real sense of being an American dont let it happen. If Obama gets in there itll be the beginning of the end of General Washington's grand boat ride. i know it. itll be prime season to gang-bang the United States in the face while we're down on one knee. so when that happens I hope Barack is equally as eloquent addressing the nation when our three rivers flow with blood so he can make you feel good about your vote for 'change' spread the wealth around. :facepalm: this is AMERICA. WE DONT DO THAT HERE . and he seriously is the favorite going into this last month? f me. y'know. just f me. repeatedly. that's all. I've been boggled. I cant do anymore. EDIT-- dont even try to quote me. I am not going to squabble with anybody about any of this. I'm admittedly not the most well informed voter about the microscopic issues but I know whats important to me and I know what I look for in a candidate. Ive withheld my comments in this thread but now Ive poured forth and this is all Ive got for it. thanks for hearing me out. choose wisely
10/16/2008	Letsgopens	You know, Tico. Im honestly not even as up on McCain as the 'war hero' as it probably sounded. Honestly theyre both probably jagoffs without real answers and I believe that. But come inauguration time I'm going to have to find a way to come to terms with whoever is elected and itll be a helluva lot easier if its Johnny

		Mac. Thats what I'm saying. somebody who has an outside chance of being called a hero trumps somebody who has an outside chance of associating with terrorists
10/23/2008	Letsgopens	with regard to the McCain supporter being assaulted: I have a feeling that no matter what happens on Nov. 4 theres going to be an outbreak of politico-racial violence. Obama wins and white supremacists are going to pop out of the woodwork with high powered rifles. You wouldnt catch me at any Obama parade. McCain wins and youll see more of this sort of random assault stuff nationwide.

Guns

11/24/2007	PAFOA	Re: open carry Forgive me, I know I could dig hard for the answer to this, as its frequently trodden territory around here but perhaps somebody can just chime in and save me the time with a simple answer or two if they would be so kind  1) are you required to produce ID for a police officer in PA 2) if confronted by an LEO would you be required to follow his order to conceal the weapon/surrender the weapon/leave the area (my guess would be no. being that you need only follow lawful orders??) 3) would you be required to speak at all to a police officer that stopped you, i.e. could I just sit and stare at his mug and see what happens? or perhaps repeat the second ammendment or something similiar with sharp redundancy? 4) would it be a good bet to just try to leave the area? what happens if Im detained? Basically I'm getting ready to strap on the holster and start with the OC. Thing is, I dont look the part of an offduty LEO, being freshly 21 and babyfaced to boot. Im just tryin to find a general consensus on the best way to act if hassled which for some reason I anticipate happening. Seems like the jury can be somewhat out on the best way of handling a situation. I dont care to bend at all from harassment from the police If I'm doing nothing more than exercising a right. If that means pissing a cop or two off, then so be it, if they are so ignorant as to try to trample my rights or inconvenience me in any way for no reason. I mean Im not talking about DISRESPECTING any cops, just not bending for them in fear as so many people do. I know some gun owners may even see that as a problem, giving other guys OC'ing a bad name or whathaveyou by 'stirring the pot'? I assure you Im not LOOKING for trouble! I

		read the thread about the guy at sonic, and it seems like he handled it well, but it just lends itself to the question: why would you even produce the LTCF (which I do have) when youre not required for an OC on foot, y'know? i dont know, I just dont want to be apprehensive about doing something legal and well within my rights just because Im unsure how to handle a problem if it were to arise. Please pardon my FAQs, I assure you ill be sniffing around the forum when I get spare time
12/28/2007	PAFOA	I am going to carry OC/CC in the street, in the mall, to a church, to the picnic, on campus, at work, and to your wedding. Because you cannot guarantee me my safety at any given location at any given time. I can. Or I can try. Thats the point. The more I think of it. I am offended when you think it is unnecessary, or inappropriate for me to take measures protect myself. If somebody stabs me, will you bleed? I didnt think so. Is workplace violence unheard of? Mall shootings? Church shootings? School shooting? Hardly. Has anybody ever lost it and attacked someone at a funeral, at a wedding? It happens. The threat exists everywhere. In every man there is a potential for danger. Why leave gaps in your armor? Murphy is a real bitch.
12/29/2007	PAFOA	I carry a cheapo nylon holster with a cheapo Bersa as well. But with no shame. Youll see it. Right now its the combo that I can afford. I am comfortable with that. As much as I would like to strap on a 3000 dollar custom 1911 its just not feasible right now. I actually love the current setup, its extremely comfortable for me and I am well practiced in the event I should need to pull it. The important things are that I am taking steps to be prepared for self defense, and am excercizing my rights to keep them strong. I must admit, typically it doesnt cross my mind because the average person doesnt know a nice gun/holster if dropped on their toe. Being at an event with gun people Ill likely be a little more conscious of it. However I can only hope I would be judged not on the make of my firearm, but on the content of my character.

1/26/2008	PAFOA	And I wish I had the funds to run some sort of advertising campaign: "Have you had your LTCF unjustly revoked or denied? We want to know about it! 1-800-WHITEMAN" Like Greg said, not that we would be able to help everybody, but I would like to know how rampant the abuses of power really are. :shrug:
1/26/2008	PAFOA	I dont think the goal would be to penalize any sheriff. The idea would be to plant the seed in their mind that they cant just revoke or deny and not be called to task on it. That, I think, isnt such a pipe dream. If Sheriff Goofyballs is driving to work/reading the paper/opening his mail/talking with his friend and it comes to light that there are a group of people looking out for folks who have been screwed, it makes him less likely to duplicate the maneuver. I think this is true because what causes the little god complex these guys have is the feeling that they can do what they want and nobody is going to say anything to them about it, matter of fact...nobody will even KNOW. No sheriff will be afraid to serve up the sour grapes when the public doesnt realize its happening, or isnt willing to fight it. I think of it like this. We all sat and recognized the benefits that emerged from 1/8/08. The "practical precedent". We would be best served by trying to maximize these benefits. Otherwise, all that happened was one guy got one license back. I want all the guys that deserve them to have their licenses without fear of cracking a fart and the county sheriff smelling it. Ya dig?
1/26/2008	PAFOA	Any chance of some preemptive action on our parts? Something like those OpenCarry training documents but in letter format and addressed to every sheriff's office statewide. Something that encloses the news snippets from Chambersburg and reads to the effect of "Dont be a wollyung. Dont think its ok to revoke citizens' LTCF on a whim(just on the off chance you were thinking about maybe doing it) because you WILL be held accountable " in so many more professional words.

		I really thought the states' sheriffs would have taken notice automatically after this months victory on E Lincoln. Apparently not. What could it hurt? Pro-gun sheriffs get the memo and smile. Antigun or on-the-fence sheriffs get the message. Possible decrease in arbitrary jagoffism. just a thought
11/10/2008	PAFOA	whats up guys. I spent a little time with the search feature but couldn't find specific answers to these few questions: 1)A. Is it lawful to saw the barrel off of a shotgun leaving enough to keep it from becoming NFA? Say I were to leave 18.5", is that permissable? 1)B. If so, does anybody have any good tips for making a good cut? 2) I recently purchased some body armor from a friend. What seems sortve shady is that there appears to be a place for a tag with information (ser number, manufacture date, etc) but it has been removed. I went ahead and purchased anyway for SHTF purposes but my question is: Is it lawful to possess/wear/transport police surplus body armor in a vehicle if said armor bears no serial number? Thanks all.
12/2/2008	Letsgopens	NYC is notoriously strict on local carry law-interesting for a place thats notorious for street crime- so I assume that as soon as he showed up in town he was illegal. Its a shame this sort of thing happens and gives the anti-gun people more 'ammunition'. With the left having firm control in Washington...our gun rights are screwed for now anyway. HR 6257, anybody? 'loaded gun in public never the right answer'.....right.....hopefully I can figure out exactly what the right answer is If I'm ever faced with a marauding group of miscreants intent on taking my life away...
12/2/2008	Letsgopens	Are you serious? Its easy to post pictures of terrorists holding AK's in an attempt

		to demonize guns but I should hope most people would see right through that tactic. What happens when the GOV is the only entity with any real firepower. And they feel like trampling you. With what instruments will you fight the tyranny? Lest ye forget. Think it cant happen here? Stay tuned.
12/3/2008	Letsgopens	just hypothetically: Hand everybody an AK and a sidearm. Everybody. And see how long these mass murdering spree's last, if anybody even dares to attempt them. Watch what happens to armed robbery and murder and rape rates. Surely some more fools would be shooting themselves in the leg, given. But in order to be a victim- you must be vulnerable. The thing about gun control is that if you pass a law restricting gun ownership the only people who are going to follow that law are lawful citizens. Criminals are going to get guns no matter what. The undesireables already have the guns, and if they dont, they will circumvent any law to get them. Can you kinda understand where I'm going here? So pass all the laws you want. Create gun-free zones out the wazoo. All it says to the bad guy is that "hey, come on to our state/city/locality...youll be the only one with a gun" And really none of this takes into account the fact that human events are shaped by war whether the paddycake liberals like it or not. Struggle is the father of all things. You need to look past fearing the guy on the corner. Because as time passes....this guy: is going to start looking a lot less like a maniac and a lot more like a guy you might desperately want as your next door neighbor.
12/3/2008	Letsgopens	Cosmo_kramer wrote: A man does not need an automatic rifle, a tank, nor a rocket launcher to defend his home...

		This is short sighted. Painfully short sighted. Im so glad everybody believes that the American way of life is gonna last forever and A) there will never be any type of civil unrest that may cause you to need something significantly more a pump shotgun to defend your home/neighborhood B) the government will never decide it knows better than you do, and therefor will take any action it deems necessary to further any means it decides it wants to accomplish C) no foreign armies will ever be rampaging through your suburban village

Itll be reintroduced, pushed through Congress with ease, and sealed with Obama's blessings. You know what else? several states are pushing state legislation regarding "ammo encoding" Indiana HB 1260.
